address of the evening.

"There should be more training for advancement of the Scout master as well as the Scout," de- clared Dr. Fretwell. His appearance before the Seminole Division group was the only Negro organized group he spoke to on his current tour of southern areas.

The prominent Scout leader spoke of using various methods of play as means of advancement in

National Boys' Congress To Convene In Memphis

Memphis World
Memphis Tenn. manifest the scouting movement under direct church control.

MEMPHIS— The National Boy's Congress will convene here on June 20-26. This meeting will include boys all over America. The goal of the meeting will be 2000 boys. The boys' department of the Congress will comprise Cadets from 6 years to 15; Junior Laymen from 15 years to 18; Royal Embassadors; Cub Scouts; YMCA groups and any other boys' organization in Baptist churches.

Each boy must be in good standing with his organization and must have the approval of his group leader. The boys' division of the Congress will be inter-related in functions with other congress agencies. There will be camp activities during the session in accordance with the local conditions of the scouts attending the meeting. Cadets and Boy Scouts may represent with (2) delegates for ($3.00) for company or troop. Cadet and Boy Scouts with company or troop may enroll with $1.00.

The activities of the Congress will embrace educational tours, swimming, merit badge, shows and plenty of time will be allowed for viewing of the Sunday School and BTU Congress in action.

The national boys' worker who is a specialist in boys' work will be in charge of the camp. There will also be two physicians. A loving cu will be presented to the troop with the highest amount of points.

To assure the Christian moral and guidance to the Scouts at the Congress and to promote the development of character building and fuller participation in church and American life.

The scouts duties at the Congress will be functional. They will serve as ushers, office aids and there will be provided fellowship periods, educational, cultural and industrial tours. Training courses will be given for the purpose of recruiting an adequately training leaders, men and women to promote and make

Happy Days At Camp Daniels End For Boy Scouts

A PHYSICAL CHECK-UP was given each week to the boys who attended Camp Daniels at Douglas Park. The two-week camp period was sponsored by Seminole Division of Boy Scouts, directed by J. A. Beauchamp, Scout Executive. Dr. E. M. Wilkins is shown in the left photo examining a group of Scouts. Assisting him are T. J. Toney and Fred Harris, staff members. Shown to the right are a group of boys who are "Kitchen Police" for the day. These duties were combined with play study and rest to provide a well rounded program of activities.

The older, experienced boys instructed the younger ones in camp craft and woodlands lore. Some of the boys have never attended camp before and each activity is a new thrill and source of delight.

Individual and team competition in the many games and sports developed a sportsmanlike attitude, as well as cooperation. Mr. Beauchamp camp director, and director of the Memphis and Shelby County Boy Scout Council declared, "When they learn the necessity of cooperation with their fellow people in every day contacts, they have come a long way toward eventual good citizenship."

7-15-49
Cooperation was the theme that ran through the various activities of the day from the start of the day at 7:30 a. m. until the camp quieted down at 9:30 p. m. sioner. During this period he was a teacher, high school principal and superintendent.

A native of Bryson City, N. C., his first professional post was as Deputy Regional Scout Executive in Region 6, comprising North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. In 1925 he became Scout Executive at Jacksonville, Fla., where he headed an experimental project to make scouting available to the Negro boys of the city.

He had an enlarged opportunity for this special interest at Atlanta, Ga., where he became Scout Executive in 1936. Here he was successful in inaugurating and developing camping facilities for Negro boys.

He is a graduate of Duke University and has taken graduate work at Columbia University and the University of Bordeaux at Bordeaux, France. He is also a graduate of the 64th National Training School for Professional Leaders in Scouting, at the Schiff Scout Reservation at Mendham N. J.

Weaver M. Marr, National Director of Interracial Service, Boy Scouts of America, will be in Montgomery Saturday, Sunday and Monday to confer with scout leaders on interracial scouting.

W. M. MARR

Saturday at 10 a.m. he will confer with Negro scout leaders in Tuskegee. Sunday at 3 p.m. he will meet with the local council's Interracial Committee at the local scout office.

His Monday schedule will include a talk before the Montgomery Rotary Club at 1 p.m. and a talk to the Selma District Committee annual banquet at 6 p.m. in Selma.

Marr is a pioneer and leader in Scouting for Negro boys and has held his present post since January, 1948.

He became a professional scoutmaster in 1924 but previous to that he was a scoutmaster for six years and then a scout commis-

GIRL SCOUTS IN 30TH CONVENTION NEXT WEEK

NEW YORK—The 30th national convention of Girl Scouts of the U. S. A. will be held November 15-18 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, with 5000 leaders, council members and other adult workers in the movement attending. The National Council of Negro Women, The National Urban League, The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will each have a representative present, it was announced this week by the national headquarters of the Girl Scouts.

Among the guests at the convention, held biennially, will be many teen age girls, members of Senior Scout troops, who have received a special invitation to take part in the proceedings of the convention.

The convention theme "Come Along With Us in Democratic Partnership" will be carried through all sessions of the four-day program. An international program will be presented on the evening of November 15. On Community Night, November 17, the Girl Scouts of Milwaukee will present a pageant before group of delegates and visitors. The latter session will be attended by the Honorable Oscar Rennebolm, Governor of Wisconsin, and Mrs. Rennebolm.

According to the convention program, morning sessions will be devoted to the business before the National Council while the afternoons and evenings will be given to general sessions and special meetings on such subjects as Girl Scouting for handicapped girls. Girl Scouting as a professional career for women; and the use of the motion picture in Girl Scout work. Election of national officers and members of the board will be held November 17 and results will be announced the final sessions on November 18.

Special events scheduled for the convention period include a luncheon at the Milwaukee Athletic Club November 16 for men who are active in the Girl Scout movement, a special session of Senior Scouting which will be carried on by the teen age members of the organization, and a full session devoted to camping.

The convention will be preceded by a two day meeting of the Girl Scout national board of directors. Convention headquarters will be the Hotel Schroeder while all sessions will be held at the Milwaukee Auditorium.
